

Dungarvan Copper Coast Irish Red Ale €6.00

This is a smooth, fruity ale with a definite caramel character created by the use of crystal malt in the brewing process but with an added hop balance that is not always present in red ales and which offsets the sweetness of the caramel flavours. This is a beer that works well with most meat dishes.

Mountain Man Brewing Co. - Hairy Goat Ale €6.00

Hairy Goat is a copper coloured English style India Pale Ale with a strong grapefruit, passion fruit and peach aroma coupled with a well-balanced hop and malt flavour. It has a medium to high level of bitterness and has been crafted for the connoisseur of full flavoured hoppy beers

Dungarvan Black Rock Irish Stout €6.00

This is a full flavoured, smooth, dry stout that has been described on more than one occasion as "the way stout used to taste". Made from roasted barley which gives a rich, chocolatey flavour complemented by herbal hints and notes of vanilla and aniseed. This is a medium-bodied stout with a light carbonation and a smooth mouth feel. This stout can be enjoyed with robust meat dishes and also works great as a dessert beer.

Mountain Man Brewing Co - Green Bullet €6.00

Green Bullet is a light refreshing golden coloured American style pale ale with subtle flavours of pine and lemon and a smooth light body. This beer has been lightly hopped with a single hop variety to allow the delicate flavours of this southern hemisphere gem shine through while balanced with a soft medium dry malt finish

Stonewell Medium Dry Cider €6.00

Inspired by the full bodied fruitiness of the medium dry and sweet ciders of these regions, Stonewell Medium Dry consists of 3 ciders, drawn from Dabinett, Michelin and Elstar/Falstaff varieties. It has a mild effervescence and strong apple aroma. The high content of eating apples brings a strong golden hue colour. On the pallet there is an initial burst of flavour carrying through to a smooth astringency. 31 calories per 100ml
